MR. TILDEN'S COURSE.

The Alexandria Gazette appropriately asserts that "there is no possible excuse for Mr. Tilden's action in deserting his party and throwing his influence in favor of its enemies in New York" at the recent election. "Mr. Kelly opposed his nomination at the St. Louis convention, as he had an undoubted right to do, and for reasons which, at least to him, seemed good, and which subsequent events have verified; but after he obtained the nominatirn he had no more earnest, and certainly no more influential, supporter than Tammany's chief. Even the republicans acknowledge that the democratic candidates in New York city were honest and competent men, and in every respect the equal of those of the opposition, and yet Mr. Tilden, who had been made by party, seized the first opportunity-at least his course warrants the world in looking upon it in that light—for showing his spite, when it could be effective.

Tilden and his pretentions to any claim upon those whom he has so basely betrayed His action evinces a Liclenees, or a degree of selfishness-if a desire to gratify his spite did not influence him-entirely incompatible with the possession of qualities essential to the success of a great party leader, and it has virtually as it should have done, eliminated his name from the list of possible candidates for the next presidency."

SENATOR DAVIS.

The following deserved compliment to Benator Davis is from a correspondent of the Wheeling Register. We share in the regret that our Senator, who is much beloved in Maryland, had not been earlier called into the contest. As it was, the county visited by bim (Garrett) gave a Democratic majority -a thing unprecedented in her history. In the last contest, she gave a majority of seventy-odd against Walsh. These facts speak londer for the influence Mr. Davis than any amount of eulogy or meaningless rhetoric.

West Virginia in the Campaign .- Sonator Davis went into Garrett county and told the sturdy yeomanry of the Alleghanies how the financial-madness of the Republican party had brought ruin to ten thousand times ten thousand homes. Had the executive head of the campaign secured the Senator's services at an earlier date, a vast amount of good might have been accomplished, for Henry G. Davis is a man who deals in facts, the most potent of all arguments. Away with buncombe speechery. The starving people, the victims of Administrations such as never disgraced any country in the world, cannot now live on flowers and meaningless rhetoric. It is the common sense, the invincible overwhelming array of "things as they are." put out by such men as Davis, that have saved the country from further maladminis-

THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY R. R.

A meeting of the Directors of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company was held at Winchester on the 12th inst. There was a very full attendance of the members of the Board. A report accompanied by maps and | nine have professed religion, amongst whom profiles, &c. of the engineer in charge of the are some of the best citizens of the neighborsurvey of the line from Shepherdstown to Railroad, was submitted, by which it was shown that a practicable and desirable route could be obtained for a connection of the two roads above named-thus securing an outlet to the Shenandoah Valley Railroad. This branch, it is believed, will be speedily put under contract, and the work of construction will be commenced at an early day. and prosecuted to completion before the coming spring.

The track of the main stem is to be laid through Shepherdstown to the river this fall, in order to afford an immediate connection with the C. & O. Canal, at that place. The bridge over the B. & O. R. R., near Duffield's, is nearly complete, and the engine will probably cross it to-morrow. The grading force of Mesers. Purcell & Riley are now at work in Clarke county.

THE VALLEY RAILROAD .- At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Valley Railroad Company, in Staunton, Va., on Wednesday, a proposition was submitted by Mr. Dorman, of Rockbridge, signed by the Valley proxies, except those of Stanuton, for a dissolution, the city of Baltimore and the Baltimore and Ohio Company taking the completed portion of the road between Harrisonburg and Staunton, and the Valley stockholders the unfinished portion and $214,000 town and county bonds, now held by the Baltimore and Ohio Company as colwas submitted in an amended shape, and it was directed to be referred to the proxies of Baltimore and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, by them to be submitted to their principals. Major Dorman reported that Mason, Shanahan & Co., had made a proposition to construct the road from Staunton to Lexington and thence to Salem, and equip it. The stockholders deferred consideration of the offer until after the 3d of December. Mr. Keyser was unanimously elected president, and the meeting adjourned to December 3d, when an answer to the Valley proposition is expected.

An intelligent farmer suggested to us recently the propriety of the Legislature this winter passing a law to exempt mortgage lands and other property from taxation to the extent of the mortgage or deed of trust .-That is to say, he thinks if a man has a farm valued on the assessor's book at $5,000, and there is a mortgage on it for $2,000, then the amount of the mortgage should be deducted and the owner of the farm taxed on $3,000 valuation instead of 5,000, and the owner of the mortgage taxed on its value, $2,000 .- Shepherdstown Register.

What, if the $5,000 farm were mortgaged to its full value, would you do about the man who is the nominal owner and possessor, and who is deriving all the profits he can make from the property?

The official returns of the election for Con-

[For the Spirit of Jefferson.] TILDEN VS. TAMMANY.

The defeat of Tammany seems to give great relief to Mr. Tilden and his friends, but the gain to them has almost destroyed the party in New York - defeated six Democratic members of Congress and insured Mr. Conkling's return to the U. S. Senate. This man of all others in the Radical party should have been left at home; he is one of the most extreme men in everything save that which effects his personal interests, and this he plainly shewed the country by his cowardly conduct during the electoral fraud. He admitted that a fraud had been committed upon the people by the counting in of Hayes as President. yet he could not rise above party feeling and honestly denounce the crime of which he knew his party to be guilty, simply because it effected his political interests with the Radical party of his State; and this is the man Sam'l J. Tilden, by his contemptible desertion of principle and party, sends back to the U. S. Senate to punish, as he supposes. the Democratic party for some imaginary wrong done him by the party in New York. But his crime has brought with it the punishment he deserved. His able supporter all through his political fight, the N. Y. Sun, now leaves him in his glory, denouncing him political coward and very weak leader. Democratic party throughout the country in their hour of need. His organ, the N. Y. Sun, during the late canvass, put forth the ery, "No King, no Clown, to Rule." Better for New York had she an honest clown to administer her laws than the corrupt king Mr. Tilden and his friends have given her. The Tilden Democrats, it would reem, are doing their very best to verify the prediction made by Grant, that the blunders and dissensions of the Democratic party would always defeat and keep them from power as a party. The local control of the Democratic party in New York can be of little value to those who have it, when it has disgusted the whole country and destroyed whatever influence it might have had in the National Convention. We must look to the West for a standard bearer, and in the Hon. Thomas A. Hondricks, of Indiana, we can find the man whose sound principles of justice and right will be acceptable to the whole party. His financial views are sound, and of that character which will command the support and allegiance of the whole party without compromise, and he will carry our banner victoriously in 1880. We can expect nothing from Mr Tilden and his friends, their principles of rule or ruin cannot be tolorated by the party of truth and justice. We hoist the banner of Hendricks, of Indiana, and country at heart. CLARKE ITEMS .- From the Courier we copy the following: Recently the ment-house of Col. U. L.
